Destination: Lanterna is a wooded peninsula in the northernmost part of the Poreč riviera (9 km from Poreč, 7 km from Novigrad).
Resort: Solaris Naturist Camping Resort is situated in the beautiful countryside of the forested Lanterna peninsula. It is next to and part of the Lanterna and Solaris apartment complex. The seafront promenade running around the Lanterna peninsula also connects to the Lanterna Premium Camping Resort. There is a little tourist train running inside the Solaris Resort and also between the individual resorts on the peninsula, providing a convenient link between the individual resorts and the nearby village of Tar, where there is a large supermarket. The resort also features a reception area, market, marketplace, bakery, five restaurants, grills and taverns (half board may be ordered in the form of a buffet). Near the reception there is a free Wi-Fi zone. The dominant feature of the Solaris Resort is a 2–5 km-long, rugged coastline, with beautiful bays and romantic views of what is mostly open sea. The resort includes two landscaped pebble naturist beaches, Galeb and Sidro, one of which has been awarded a Blue Flag for its clean sea and beach. There is a naturist freshwater swimming pool by the Sidro beach, next to which there is a water-sports centre.

Victoria Accommodation:
 • The Victoria mobile homes Lux are situated in a wooded part of the resort some 400 m from the coast with the Galeb and Sidro beaches.
